

2011 COLUMBIA VALLEY CABERNET FRANC

The fruit and savory qualities of this wine are still blossoming in the bottle and more so in glass. The wine is built around forest aromas and plum fruit scented by culinary herbs, tarragon and basil. The wedding of these two facets of our olfactory palates gives the wine the immediate allure that I like to see in new wine as well as the seductive promise of more to come. Like many new releases, this wine will greatly relax after it is opened. Good, interesting, nervy 2011 vintage.
